News & Happenings

Sunday of the Myrrh-bearers: I always like acknowledging all those who serve us during our Liturgies, as well as all the lay volunteers who give so much to our parish. Firstly, I thank our Deacon, Steve Russo, for the invaluable service he does for the parish, as well as being my right-hand man. Our Cantor, Randy Weyant, is an integral part of the celebration of the Liturgy, and without whose ministry the services are very difficult to celebrate properly. With him, I also thank Carolyn O'Boyle for her work as Readers. Our Altar Servers also should be remembered as they serve God, Deacon Steve and myself at the Altar. Ann Devine serves us and our children as Religious Education director, Dave and Steph Fanning in their tireless work with our Friday Night Bingo, along with those parishioners who volunteer in the kitchen, at the Bingo machine and the cash register every week. John Mikla and Ann Devine serve as Lay Trustees of the parish, and I thank them for their help and support. There are many others who I rely on for guidance and advice in making sure that the parish runs as smoothly as possible. If I missed anyone, "through forgetfulness or multitude of names," as St. Basil says, know that you are appreciated as well. God bless all those who serve!
