WHOEVER DESIRES TO BECOME GREAT AMONG YOU SHALL BE YOUR SERVANT

Hear at least how this same John—he who now came close to Him for these things – everywhere give up the first place to Peter, both in addressing the people, and in working miracles, in the Acts of the Apostles. He does not conceal Peter's good deeds, but relates both the confession, which he openly made when all were silent, and his entering into the tomb. And he puts the Apostle before himself. ...Let us then become lowly, so we may be high. For most utterly does arrogance abase ...Abraham says, "I am dust and ashes" and prevailed over countless barbarians ...bearing a trophy more glorious than the former and, clinging to his virtue, grew ever more high. –St. John Chrysostom, Homily 65 on Matthew 20:2-6.
